

The village of Kuara is a simple village that caters to the visitors to the Slave Market located on the isle of Kon Severtri. There is an Inn that hosts those attending the auctions and those who have brought slaves to be sold. There is also a Chandlery that offers supplies and refit services to ships that dock at the harbor.