

This is an outpost created by the Drow Queen of the Night to keep watch over the Minotaurs of the Magumul Empire, the Dark Aeifa of the Matriarchy of Verinress 'Arl and the Fae of Oberon's Court in the Forest of Borovica. In addition to her spying efforts, she has also maintained a laboratory specializing in the creation of diseases. If her efforts are successful, she plans on releasing a new contagion into the waters of the Efratis River to plague the inhabitants of the Minotauran city of Cheshegna in hopes of causing a new war between the Empire and the Matriarchy.
