

Map Notes for Drunken Bear Inn (Beruset Bjorn)

This 2 story Inn is on the road from Dunor to Skorra. It is very self-sufficient – sheep, cattle, ducks, poultry, and honey, as well as a well-stocked fruit and vegetable garden. It also brews its own beers, for which it is famous, and has a very competent blacksmith, who in the evenings, also serves as a very formidable bouncer. No trouble in this Inn.

The host's wife is the cook, and turns out magnificent meals from her local produce. The inn is rarely less than three quarters full. Because it is rather isolated, it is protected by a stout wall to keep wild animals out.
