

The stair down from level 2 lead to a prison and torture complex. Various prisoners, some recently undead, some still awaiting transformation, are in various cells, each of which has its own unique torture signature. Each is guarded by pairs of undead soldiers, and each cell is sadistically supervised by minor demons and undead. One cell is just full of mushy stinking rotting flesh and moulds, and bones of failed experiments. And in the cave of slime, there are deadly slimes, oozes, puddings and cubes, guarding blocked stairwell the abruptly leads to a chute, ending in a 20' drop into the cavern entrance below.