

Sanctuary Valley

This very fertile valley lies on the southern shores of the huge Trinagonga Gulf. The gulf itself is warm, fairly shallow and dotted with small islands and coral atolls.

The main valley is covered with rich farmland, dotted with villages and a few large towns (Thaugsuban and Apichart) and one massive city of Sanctuary (Wihar Nkur in the language common to this area). The lords of Sanctuary rule over the whole countryside shown on the map, except for the jungle and wetlands to the west and the Elderwyld (Pa Kèa) Grasslands to the north east.. A lively maritime trade emanates from Sanctuary to regions throughout the continent, and continents beyond. Truly, it is the hub of the world, and the richest city on Nibirum, rivalled only by Vyrn on Berenur, and Stromphe on Artemisia.
